Presidents Corner

Hello fellow SVAA'ers. I have painters block. Do you ever get to the point where you just can't decide what to paint next? If so, I think we need a change of scenery. Even if it's just a drive to Pacific Grove and along the coast.

I will be thinking of you as I travel through Northern California, Oregon & Washington in a couple of weeks.

Hopefully I will get inspired!

Don't miss out on our October meeting as an amazing artist, Sandra Whipple will be demonstrating. See you there.

Her demo will feature graphite drawing and how to achieve realistic effects. Also combining colored pencil and watercolor with graphite, blending techniques and using putty erasers in your drawing. I will bring photos of these as they are all sold and in private collections.

Featured Artist

Lyla Vevoda

Lyla majored in art during high school. Years later, her daughter gifted Lyla a large stash of studio supplies, which awakened her passion for painting. Numerous artist workshops sharpened her skills and she has now been a popular artist at the Valley Art Gallery for 6 years.

Many artists consider painting a difficult process, but Lyla paints to relax.

The artist previously chosen to be guest artist and I never could communicate, so I arbitrarily chose Lyla because she had to take a leave to care for her ill husband and after he passed and is now back being her active self. Welcome back Lyla!!
