Presidents Corner

Hello SVAA,

Isn't it great Spring is finally here! We certainly had a long, wet winter (even though we had the same number of winter days it just seemed longer and colder.

Thinking back to our last meeting ...I hope you enjoyed Judy Gettleson's Acrylic retirement demonstration. I'm a watercolor and oil painter but I always learn something from other media demonstrations. We try and pull artists 🧑🎨🧑🎨 from all mediums to please everyone.

We took a poll from our group and found we have 7 water colorists, 6 oil, 6 acrylics, 1 pen 🖋️ and ink along with colored pencil, 1 digital, 1 jewelry and 1 pine needle basket 🧺 weaver. 😊 Isn't that cool how diversified we are!

Bring 1 or 2 of your projects to our May 11th meeting and let us hear how you create your ✨ magic. 🧐🧑🎨🧑🎨. We can learn from each other.

Also bring ideas of what you would like to see or do in SVAA. Let us know if you want hands-on painting etc. How about field trips to museums or galleries?

A current project for seven of our members is to brighten the walls of Golden Bear Physical Therapy Center.

What's next?

I really hope to see you and your work on May 11th at our new meeting place... Salinas Valley Community Church, 368 San Juan Grade Rd., Salinas

Thank Shiree Goins, Administrative Assistant of Salinas Valley Community Church, for opening their arms to allow SVAA to have a new home ❤️
