Sandra Schaetzel Ueker

Sandra Schaetzel Uecker, a Wisconsin native, lives in Corral de Tierra. She is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh with a BS in Education/English and a BA in Art Education. She taught secondary art locally at Alisal and North Salinas High School. Retired from teaching, she returned to her love of painting in acrylics. Her process includes using her iPhone photographed images to create compositions for her paintings and painting from life.

Sandra is a member of the Monterey Peninsula Art Foundation, the Central Coast Art Association, an Associate Member of the Carmel Art Association, the Pacific Grove Art Center and the Monterey Museum of Art. She is a contributing artist to the Monterey Museum of Art "Miniatures", the Pacific Grove "Tiny Treasures", the Carmel Bach Festival Art Show and "Art in the Pastures of Heaven". She has been recognized with awards and she has had work chosen for juried shows, including the Wisconsin Regional Arts.

Featured Artist of the Month

Janeva Frisby

In 2013-14, when I was president of SVAA, I enjoyed bringing demonstration artist to our meetings and planning exhibits. Unfortunately, when I was diagnosed with Lymphoma half way through my last year as president, I was unable to follow through with several future projects.

I was unable to carry on with simple daily tasks, being incapacitated for several years. Now that I'm able to paint again, I appreciate every stroke I can put on canvas!

I'm currently finding myself painting in a looser manner, and enjoying the results. I thank Marv Anderson for encouraging me to, "Put the paint on the canvas", and get back into the routine of painting again. And, I thank everyone who believed I could come back. In the words of Ed Penniman, " Art is a savior".
